

Who should attend?

- Law Enforcement
- Judges
- Prosecutors
- Attorneys
- Advocates
- Victim Service Providers
- Social Workers
- Probation officers
- Community Leaders and Activists
- Other professionals and individuals interested in domestic violence

Sponsors

Hi-Line's Help for Abused Spouses
Montana Coalition Against Domestic and Sexual Violence
Region 3

Funded in part by the Department of Justice Office on Violence Against Women, Grant # #2006-
WRAX-0017.

Continuing education credits will be available for Law Enforcement officers from the POST Board.

Domestic Violence – Coordinating a Community Criminal Justice System Response (CCR)

Thursday and Friday
November 6 & 7, 2008
Day 1: Inter-disciplinary Day 2: Tracks by Discipline

Heritage Inn
1700 Fox Farm Road
Great Falls, MT

Trainers:
Rose Thelen
Gender Violence Institute
Clearwater, MN

Marcus Bruning
St. Louis County Sheriff's Office
Duluth, MN

Judy Wang
Prosecutor
Missoula City Attorney's Office

About the Training

Day 1 Overview: An opportunity to learn about the criminal justice Coordinated Community Response (CCR) model, including:

- Assumptions and principles that guide inter-agency interventions in these cases
- Individual agency as well as collective goals, roles and tasks in a CCR
- How to assess the effectiveness of current agency interventions
- How to enhance responses

Day 2 Overview: An opportunity to examine in-depth specific content to strengthen individual and agency participation in a CCR through the following tracks:

Track 1: The Law Enforcement Response

Track 2: The Prosecutor's Response

Track 3: The Advocate/ CCR Coordinator Response

About the Trainers

Rose Thelen has worked nationally and internationally to develop more effective public and private responses to domestic violence. As a Praxis Technical Assistance Provider she provides training and technical assistance to Office on Violence Against Women grantees. Rose has been working in the field of domestic violence since 1979, as an advocate, lobbyist, CCR coordinator, trainer, technical assistance provider and author.

Marcus Bruning has been with the St. Louis County Sheriff's Department since 1993, where he is currently Chief Deputy. He has been a patrol officer, D.A.R.E. Officer, and department trainer. Marcus has been a trainer with the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center since July 2001. He is a national expert on the law enforcement response and the CCR approach.

Judy Wang is a graduate of Montana State University and completed her JD from the University of Montana in 1984. She is the Assistant City Attorney for the City of Missoula and supervises the criminal prosecution section of that office. Judy has worked on legislation involving domestic violence issues during many legislative sessions. In 1994 she received the Salute to Excellence Award from the Missoula YWCA for Public Service. She was the chair of the Missoula Family Violence Council for 10 years. In 2004 Judy was Awarded a Life Time Achievement Award by the Attorney General for her work on prosecuting domestic violence cases. In 2005 she was awarded the Public Servant Award from the Missoula Family Violence Council. She is a member of Montana's Domestic Violence Fatality Review Commission.

Lodging

A block of rooms at the Heritage Inn has been reserved at the state rate. Call for your reservation at (800) 548-8256.

Registration

Deadline for registering is 10/22/2008

Name _____

Organization _____

Address _____

City _____

State _____ Zip _____

Phone _____

Email _____

Please circle the track
you wish to attend on Day 2:

Track 1: Law Enforcement Response

Track 2: Advocate/Coordinator Response

Both tracks will include input from Judy Wang regarding prosecution and legal issues.

_____ $25 Training Fee

Scholarships may be available upon request.

Mail registration with check payable to:

Hi-Line's Help for Abused Spouses

300 N. Virginia, Ste. 307

Conrad, MT 59425

For more information contact Cindy Larson at
(406) 278-3342 or cindy_hlhas@yahoo.com